COML 3811 - Theory and the Practice of Translation

Spring. 4 credits.

N. Pollak.

Readings in translation theory will illuminate the practice of translating literary texts, both verse and prose. The main work of the course will be a translation project, to be discussed in class workshops. Students with proficiency in any language in addition to English are welcome.